No. 1, Sprig House Emporium!

CLOTHES, CASSIMIRES AND VESTINGS!

New Spring and Summer Goods!

The undersigned are able to supply their customers with the most fashionable goods that I have just returned from New York, and have been sent to procure the most fashionable goods for the season that the great Emporium, New York, can afford. Their taste and the skill of their workmanship, make the cloths, cotton and linen, silk, satin, lace, etc., of every article, the best in quality and value.

I have also Prod. O. W. Wood's Hair Restorative, and

W. H. Kelly's Hair Restorative, and many other articles as I thought, necessary, but by the use of his Restorative, it has remained aavigial color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

Professor Wood's Oriental Smelling Liniment.

This liniment is a valuable remedy in the treatment of one of the most formidable diseases with which it is our but to contend; for instance, inflammation of the lungs and seats. By a thorough and continued application of this liniment over the regions of the lungs, it will remove the disease at once, and if continued, will cure it.

These diseases are at once destroyed, and thousands of mothers, particularly among children, and thousands of mothers, are thereby relieved, and rendered to a long course of health and happiness.

It will be found a sovereign remedy for the cure of various diseases, and especially for those which are peculiar to the Orientals.

I am certain that I can furnish better cloths than any house west of the Allegheny mountains.

In connection with the above I have a beautiful assortment of fine silk, fine muslins, and fine batting, consisting of cloths, cambric, cashmere, bold bath, gauze, linen, plain linen, silk, dress and business cloths, vests, pants, etc., made in all the principal cities of the Orient.

I have the most beautiful selection ever looked at in any of which I am now prepared to take up in the most comfortable, best style, and are prepared to execute any order, and furnish the same in any quantity required.

How much better, also, every other article suitable for connecting a gentleman's wardrobe.

All the above named articles, together with many other articles that can be found at No. 1, Sprig House.

Please call and take a look, and much ob-serve.

NEW FASHIONED LETTERS AT THE OLD POST OFFICE!

I AM now receiving and opening an unusually large and general assortment of Books, Novels, Magazines, Journals, &c., printed at the Post Office, at the corner of Market and High Streets, Wheeling, Va., in the town formerly occupied as the Post Office and opposite the McLean House, a very large and very new stock, which was purchased for a sum that I consider the best in the most favorable circumstances, and offer them to the citizens of Wheeling and vicinity at reduced rates, wholesale and retail, and respectively select a class of patron-ers.

I deem it useless to say much in praise of my stock. It

Imitate not the people of Wheeling are not so easily humbled by advertising, but I will say today I have a large and very good stock of books, novels, magazines, &c., which I consider the best in the market.
